The David Jones Family

in Strathfield

Strathfield Library & Innovation Hub
17 October - 1 December 2024

The David Jones family have strong associations with the Strathfield district, dating back to the 1860s. Members of the family have played an important role in business, architecture, medicine, education, recreation and even the incorporation of Strathfield Council.

David Jones is one of the world's oldest department stores still trading under their original name. It was founded in Sydney in 1838 by Welsh immigrant David Jones and continued to be managed by his family for over 140 years.

The exhibition will take you on a journey through the history of David Jones and their stories and legacy in the Strathfield district. A talk will be held on Sunday 10 November 2024 to accompany the exhibition.

This exhibition has been developed by Strathfield-Homebush District Historical Society with the support of Strathfield Council.
