

Ironbark Gallery Exhibits Scenes from Gadigal and surrounds: Tahlia Henderson

For immediate release
24 July 2024

Strathfield Council is excited to announce the Ironbark Gallery's upcoming exhibition Scenes from Gadigal and surrounds by Tahlia Henderson which will be open to members of the public from 25 July to 13 October 2024.

Scenes from Gadigal and surrounds is an exhibition that vibrantly captures the detail and beauty of Sydney's bush landscapes. It is a celebration of the richness, abundance, diversity, and beauty of these sites. Take the time to stop and soak up these vistas. Acknowledge the land on which we stand and do not take this for granted.

These painted landscape compositions are a detailed record of the bushland explored within and surrounding suburban Sydney - Gadigal. The unique layers of foliage, rock, colours, textures, and biodiversity of each place are forever changing – either seasonally or with the intensity of fires and floods that have increased with climate inaction. These battered landscapes remain resilient for now and continue to provide and protect inhabitants away from suburbia.

The exhibition runs from 25 July to 13 October 2024. at the Ironbark Gallery located within the Strathfield Council Library & Innovation Hub, 65 – 67 Rochester Street, Homebush.
